Popular Young Couple Weds in Sunday Rites

Rev. Clyde E. Ruckman officiated at the double ring ceremony performed in First Methodist church Sunday afternoon, Nov. 21, when Maurine Moad, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Moad, of 1324 Amapola avenue, became the bride of Howard Alan Mann, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Mann, 18129 Prairie ave. The bride wore a white satin wedding gown with full train of tulle and a heart-shaped hat decorated with orange blossoms with a finger tip veil. She carried a nosegay of bouvardia centered with a white orchid. The matron of honor, Mrs. Joan Morse, wore an aqua formal gown and carried a nosegay of bouvardia centered with yellow roses. Delicious refreshments, which had been brought by the guests, were served to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Martin of Torrance; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gentle, Mrs. Elsie Walker, Lee Dyer, Mrs. Margaret Chaney, Mrs. Ruth Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Goodwin and Henry Mascola of San Pedro; Miss Mabel Reid of Orange; Mr. and Mrs. R. ### Program Set for Y Club Dinner Meet

A well-planned program will highlight tonight's dinner meeting of the Y.W.C.A. Club for young business and home women. The dinner is the first regular meeting of the Y.W.C.A. Club. Mrs. Elaine Williams will be chairman for the affair, to be held at First Christian church at 7 p.m. In charge of arrangements are members of a steering committee which was selected to plan the first few meetings until members are well enough acquainted to elect permanent officers. Members of the steering committee in addition to Mrs. Williams are Misses Joan Pierce, Sandy Pointek, Edna and Mildred Snell and Mrs. Grayce Hunt. Miss Elaine Allsbrook is the Y.W.C.A. program director advising the organization.

The club was formed as a result of a party sponsored two weeks ago by the Torrance Y.W.C.A. committee and held at the Episcopal church social hall. Hostesses for this affair were Mesdames J. P. Montague, Carl Forkum, Russell T. Baughman and Helene Schott. Mesdames Don Moshos and John L. Shellman assisted in the musical entertainment.

Ways and Means Projects Planned by Halldale PTA

Mesdames E. M. Bernardin, C. B. Humphrey, H. T. Seeman, Don Wolf, John Garner, A. B. Bonwell and W. C. Sidwell, members of Halldale P.T.A., attended the First District Welfare Council luncheon Nov. 30 at the St. Andrew's Episcopal church parish hall.

Proceeds of the recent rag drive sponsored by Halldale P.T.A. amounted to $56. This amount will be divided equally between the student body fund of the school and the P.T.A. treasury. Halldale P.T.A. recently donated $5 to the Christmas party for the Dominguez Development School.

Carson street. Those who wish to contribute may contact room mothers or call Mrs. H. T. Seeman, 2277 R.

Regular executive board meeting will be held tomorrow at the school. Each member will bring a Christmas gift to be placed in the grab bag. Mrs. Amanda Bonwell, principal, will be the hostess.

Mrs. H. T. Seeman urges attendance at the Lomita-San Pedro Council meeting at 9:45 a.m. Dec. 7 in Point Fernin School. Transportation will be furnished anyone contacting her. Posters made by the various P.T.A. art chairmen will be displayed and judged. "Let's give our chairman, Mrs. Thomas Gibson, support," urges Mrs. Seeman.
